"A day may appear to be dull and empty in your eyes, but it isn't in others'." "It's like a new way of seeing your world, your life, your future. But you're not seeing it yet. You're just seeing it through the lens of your eyes. The only way to see it is to see it through the lens of your heart. The only way to see it is to see it through the lens of your soul. The only way to see it is to see it through the lens of your spirit. The only way to see it is to see it through the lens of your God."
